

The Good, The Bad And The Ugly: Exploring Contingent Workforce Attributes in 2024

May 15-16 2024 | Chicago, IL

VMS Professionals 17th Annual Conference Wednesday, May 15

8:00AM	Registration Registration and Continental Breakfast in Exhibitor Hall
8:45AM	Welcome and Conference Overview Leslie Vickrey
9:00AM	Keynote From Theory to Reality: Key Trends Shaping the Contingent Workforce Strategies of Organizations Presented by Krishna Charan, Vice President, Business Services at Everest Group Contingent workforce management has claimed its place as a crucial component of organizational workforce strategies. Krishna will unveil exclusive data to help contingent workforce practitioners elevate their programs to new heights.
10:30AM	Break, Exhibitor Hall
11:00AM	Technologies: What is new in the world of VMS tools? Zoila Primo, Netflix Kinsey Salvatore, Abbott Liz Muro, Discover Financial For contingent workforce management leaders, the proliferation of VMS tools and technology can be a challenge, to say the least. Which ones are best for your organization? How do you cut through the clutter and the hype?
12:00PM	Networking Lunch
1:00PM	Ask the Experts: How are programs implementing change to attract talent in an ever changing market? Jeremy Kruse, CME Group Jessica Tiscione, Marriott Marisa Compton, Netflix Hear from a team of experts on hot topics in program management, from perennial challenges of turnover and talent shortages to direct sourcing and talent attraction strategies.
2:00PM	Break, Exhibitor Hall
2:30PM	Breakout Session, Analytics: The impact of data and how to tell your program story to stakeholders Natalie Javid, Snowflake Liz Muro, Discover Financial In interactive breakout sessions, we'll explore program and executive dashboards and which key metrics and goals are most impactful and informative
3:30PM	Break, Exhibitor Hall
4:00PM	Best Practices In a return to our VMS Professionals roots, this session will offer an opportunity to discuss specific challenges and successes they are having in their programs with other attendees. This session is for VMS Professional member organizations only and no exhibitors will attend.
5:15PM – 7:00PM	Networking Session: Enjoy plentiful hors d'oeuvres, cocktails, and shared program experiences.

Thursday, 5/16

8:00AM	Registration Registration and Continental Breakfast in Exhibitor Hall
9:00AM	Welcome Leslie Vickrey
9:15AM	Panel: How to keep your program stable in a constant state of change Mollie Stark, Deloitte Lina Christian, Elevance Health Karl Wolf, Molson Coors Explore how industry leaders navigate constant change in contingent workforce management. From legal complexities to economic shifts, leadership transitions to workforce engagement, our panelists offer insights for stability amid flux.
10:15AM	Break, Exhibitor Hall
10:45AM	Breakout Session, Compliance Strategies: Is compliance process or tool driven? In this interactive breakout session, attendees will share leadership experiences and problem-solve.
12:00PM	Networking Lunch
1:00PM	Contingent Workforces In the Crosshairs: The EEOC's Priorities and Focus on AI and Recruiting Christopher DeGroff & Rachel See, Seyfarth Shaw This panel discussion will feature industry leaders Christopher DeGroff and Rachel See from Seyfarth Shaw LLP covering everything from legal updates impacting labor and benefits for contractors, to the state of GIG workers and AI's impact on it all. This will be an interactive session with opportunity for Q&A.
2:30PM	Closing

2024 Exhibitors

ALLEGIS
GLOBAL SOLUTIONS™

beeline®

WorkLlama™

